

6 Business Headaches

Headache #1- Managing Money

Cash Flow Challenge ... Sound Familiar?

You have a serious cash flow problem. It has gotten to the point where you are unable to make timely payments to your suppliers; recently you paid one of your key vendors out of your own pocket to keep him happy. The situation has you worried and embarrassed.

What's Going On Here?

Is this cash flow crisis a reflection of

- a profitability challenge?
- a pricing problem?
- an accounting system problem?
- something else?

Your Business Advisor, LLC will help you identify what's behind your cash crunch and will work with you to fix it.
